

PRESS RELEASE

EME WELCOMES MEDICAL EDITOR

East Stroudsburg, PA (USA)—9 December, 2009. Edits Made Easy, LLC has announced the addition of an experienced medical editor to its team of professional editors, coaches, writers, and instructors. Robert Gorman brings to his position at EME thirty years of experience in the health care field as a project manager, research coordinator, department head, consultant, and respiratory care professional; he also comes with fifteen years of experience in medical editing and medical writing. During this time, Robert has worked as the on-staff editor for medical journals and research centers, as well as privately with individual physicians, researchers, students, and writers. Robert holds a Master's degree in Health Administration, a Bachelor's degree in Applied Social Sciences, and a number of industry-related certifications.

In the words of the EME president, "Robert brings a wealth of experience to our team. With an increasing number of medical students and clients from the healthcare industry seeking our services, we are delighted to be able to offer help from someone of Robert's caliber. He's a great asset and we are excited to welcome him aboard!"

EditsMadeEasy has distinguished itself as a uniquely comprehensive service, offering coaching (for fiction, nonfiction, and academic projects), pre-publication packages (for manuscripts), fact-checking, and resumé and career services, in addition to editing at a variety of levels. The company employs highly-skilled professionals in a range of writing fields to work only in the areas they know best. A cost calculator allows potential clients to choose exactly the services that fit their needs ... and their budgets. Free samples are available in every field.
